Centering Equity in Virginia

Leah Dozier Walker
Director, Office of Equity & Community Engagement
OFFICE OF EQUITY & COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

- Leads statewide efforts aimed at advancing equity, closing achievement gaps, and decreasing disproportionality in student outcomes.
- Develops strategic partnerships and facilitates engagement and support for public education.
Education Equity in Virginia

Education Equity is defined by our inability to predict student outcomes based on race, gender, zip code, ability, socioeconomic status or languages spoken at home.
"Not everything that is faced can be changed, but nothing can be changed until it is faced."

- James Baldwin
English Pass Rate (Virginia SOL Tests)

Source: VDOE Staff Analysis

Note: Reading pass rates are calculated as the number of students passing the assessment divided by the number of students tested.
COVID-19

YO THIS IS THE BIGGEST GAME OF COOTIES I'VE EVER SEEN IN MY LIFE.
The Role of Leaders for Equity:

- Make inequities visible;
- Disrupt discourse, practices and policies that perpetuate inequities; and
- Reimagine new ways to engage and co-design with our communities so that each child and adult learns, thrives and experiences a sense of belonging.
Operationalizing

Eliminating the predictability of student outcomes based on race, gender, zip code, ability, socio-economic status or languages spoken at home.

Profile of an Ed Leader
KEY STEPS TO ENSURING EQUITY DURING SCHOOL CLOSURES

Meet Students’ Needs First

Ensure Equitable Access & Adequate Supports

Centralize Communication to ALL Families

Develop an Equity-Centered Return to School Plan
Develop a Return To School Plan

The impact of sustained learning loss during this period of school closures combined with disparities in implementation of continuity of learning models has the potential to exacerbate previously existing gaps in student achievements.
1. Center Equity - Evaluate whether your plan will improve or worsen disparities between student groups and establish measurable equity goals that are informed by your diagnostic data. Consider conducting a Return to School Planning Equity Audit.

2. Reflect - Establish processes and accountability levers to facilitate equitable implementation of your plan and mitigate unintended disparate impacts and consequences. Monitor the impact of your plan on underserved groups, including students of color, multilingual students (ELs), students experiencing poverty and homelessness.

3. Strengthen Relationships - Ensure family engagement, student support, instructional approaches, assignments and learning opportunities are culturally relevant and culturally responsive. Consider implementing protocols to ensure that strategies and initiatives have been evaluated through a cultural and economic competency lens.

4. Outreach - Devote adequate resources to outreach, communication, and family engagement, in multiple languages and through multiple channels to ensure that the most vulnerable families have access to information and understand expectations of students. Identify community partners and stakeholders and empower them with information in support of your communication efforts.

TEN RETURN TO SCHOOL EQUITY STRATEGIES

VIRGINIA IS FOR LEARNERS
5. Prioritize - Prioritize access to learning loss recovery programs/interventions for students who are disproportionately impacted by learning loss during school closures. Before mandating participation and attendance in these programs, evaluate unintended consequences and disparate impact. (i.e. students in low-income families, students whose families have been impacted by unemployment, those whose parents are essential workers, students with disabilities who have struggled to get services remotely, students whose families have been disconnected from school during the school closure, and English learners).

6. Mitigate - Identify and mitigate barriers to student participation for reasons outside of the students’ control (i.e., caring for younger children, housing instability, health concerns, transportation, adult support).

7. Reframe - Examine discipline/student code of conduct policies to mitigate against bias and embed safeguards to evaluate student trauma manifesting through behaviors. This is especially important for marginalized student groups disproportionately impacted by exclusionary discipline policies.
8. Support Staff - Provide professional development and instructional resources to school leaders and teachers related to “student engagement” and “cultural responsiveness” to support their delivery of remote and virtual distance learning instruction. Particular emphasis should be placed on facilitating understanding of the impacts of social determinants of health, poverty, unemployment, and cultural values on student learning post COVID closures.

8. Close the Distance - Access to devices and the internet alone are not sufficient to ensure delivery of high-quality distance learning that is available and engaging to all students. Prepare multiple delivery modes for remote learning, avoid an over-reliance on technology to facilitate student engagement in learning, and ensure adequate support for families to be partners in student learning.

9. Double Down - Now is the time to double down on equity investments. Examine the use of federal stimulus (CARES Act) funding to address equity gaps (small class size, technology, access to early learning). Prioritize funding to meet the needs of English Learners, students with disabilities, undocumented students, minoritized and marginalized students and students living in poverty.

Listening to the Experts

Voices from the Field

Through a submission form on its home page, the Commonwealth Learning Partnership has invited educators from across Virginia to share reflections on how they are experiencing this time, what they are learning, and recommendations for how education should adapt moving forward. To date, the Partnership has received over 200 responses from educators located all over Virginia. We continue to highlight their responses through social media and other public communications.

Educator Heroes

The Commonwealth Learning Partnership believes in the importance of uplifting and amplifying the stories of educators who go above and beyond professional expectations to teach and support their students. Through this initiative located on the home page of the Partnership website, we invite visitors to nominate an educator they know to be featured in our public communications as an “Educator Hero.”
Later this month, the Commonwealth Learning Partnership will launch a free teleconference series with Ted Dintersmith to discuss the concepts outlined in his book What School Could Be.

Participants will hear directly from Ted and have opportunities to ask questions, take deeper dives into core topics through breakout sessions, and dialogue with members of the Commonwealth Learning Partnership and other attendees.
